

Turn – Hit the Target – Run to Space

This next progression of the drill can be seen multiple times in any high level game. Ball is played to a midfielder facing his own goal. He turns and splits a set of defenders to another player down the field also playing facing his own goal. This player is immediately put under pressure and he does not turn but lays the ball off to the middle who passed to him making a run to either side of his position.

